

A prayer / mantra for Hindus in our community:

"What use the rush, this hurry, this burden of earthly duties? God's purposes stand firm, And you, his little one, need one thing only –Trust that he is able and willing to satisfy your needs. Rest your burdens on him, And you, his little one, May play in safety by him. This is the essence of it all –God is, God loves you, God carries your burdens. (Turaram)
